It Starts Here! Stories of the Old Testament

The Tomorrow River Lutheran Parish

Year 1, Lesson 19:

Saul & David I

Tonight, we transition into the age of the Kings. Samuel is still alive and still working on behalf of God, but at the peoples' request, secular governance will now be taken over by a series of Kings. The first three kings – Saul, David and Solomon – rule over a united Israel, but then the country fractures and there is one line of Kings in the North and another line of Kings in the South. We are going to follow the outline provided to us by Egermeier's Bible Story Book for the sake of brevity and clarity, but you really should read these stories out of the Bible too. There are lots of details and twists that go beyond Egermeier's!
